

Community Resources Vulnerable Populations (Information from City of Iowa City website www.icgov.org)

Elderly, Underprivileged

Aging Services - Coordinates yard maintenance, snow removal and some home modification for residents of Johnson County age 60 and older.

Kim Pospisil (319)398-3644

City of Iowa City - Grants and low-interest loans for home repairs, modifications and energy upgrades through multiple programs. Must be a resident of Iowa City.

Liz Osborne (319)356-5246

Greater Iowa City Area Home Builders Association - Home modification grants available for low-income residents of Johnson County who are age 65+ and/or disabled.

Karyl Bohnsack (319)351-5333

Hawkeye Area Community Action Program (HACAP) - Assists with weatherization and utility expenses.

(319)393-7811 or info@hacap.org

Housing Trust Fund of Johnson County - Forgivable loans available for needed home rehabilitation for income-qualified residents of Johnson County outside of Iowa City.

Ellen McCabe (319)358-0212 or Program Manager Mark Culver (319)365-9941

Iowa Valley Habitat for Humanity - Completes and oversees affordable home repairs and modifications for low-income residents of Johnson County. Grants available.

Scott Hawes (319)337-8949

Food Resources

- CommUnity Crisis Center and Food Bank
- Food Assistance Replacement: This program assists households that normally receive Food Assistance to receive replacements for food destroyed or spoiled due to the storm.
- Hawkeye Area Community Action Program, Inc. \(HACAP\), the community action agency serving Johnson County, offers mobile food pantries and other nutrition services.
- USDA Tips for Handling Food Following a Disaster

Legal Resources

- Iowa Legal Aid
 - Legal Advice Hotline: (800) 332-0419; 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday to Friday
- Iowa State Bar Association offers information on legal assistance.